

Evelina Frost

Cyber Security Project Manager

e.frost@email.com
(123) 456-7890
Columbus, IN LinkedIn

A dedicated cybersecurity professional with over a decade of experience with expertise in anticipating threats, designing resilient security frameworks, and continuously adapting to the evolving cybersecurity landscape to protect vital assets and foster trust.

Work Experience

Cummins Inc. – Cyber Security Project Manager

2020 - current

Columbus, IN

- Harnessed RiskWatch for risk assessment protocols, trimming security incidents by 34 %
- Analyzed security incidents on Splunk for better system integrity, resolving 158 threats
- Nailed project documentation on Confluence, ensuring materials were up-to-date and accessible
- Evaluated security metrics from Nagios for insights that slashed annual system downtime by 66 hours

Ball State University – Cybersecurity Consultant

2017 - 2020

Muncie, IN

- Utilized Jira to protect sensitive data stored in the cloud, improving data integrity
- Fostered Slack-powered collaboration that optimized cybersecurity policy creation in 9 departments
- Shared cybersecurity materials via Google Workspace, raising awareness for 1,224 members
- Implemented Splunk for log analysis, detecting 218 anomalous activities during the tenure

Navient – Security Analyst

2014 - 2017

Fishers, IN

- Automated reporting using ServiceNow Security Incident Response, expediting reporting by 12 hours
- Managed tasks using Trello for better coordination, boosting task completion rate by 23%
- Tracked network activity with Nagios, preventing over 306 unauthorized access attempts
- Used Microsoft Project for task management, achieving a 42% improvement in efficiency

Education

Purdue University – Bachelor of Science, Cybersecurity

2010 - 2014

West Lafayette, IN

Skills

Microsoft Project; Slack; Confluence; RiskWatch; Jira; Splunk; Google Workspace; Nagios; Trello; ServiceNow Security Incident Response